

Intermission in this Th? tre Mouse i-Lánd Production

Precise Technical Description/Definition/Specification of

* klub K LloKomE *

If you are used to reading spanish then the word LloKomE in it the first two letters are both an 'L' and is pronounced double ll as in english as in allways, and not as that other your spanish 'll'.

So, yes, baby, let's not turn of the lights tonight... I don't like the darkness either and the dark is made for Night Ligts and Music and for Dance Clubs and for Seeing your Friends the People Near and Dear to YOU or at least people you can lauth with and have a half way decent intelligent CONVERSATION with and Dancing! Which is what we invented the Night for in the first place! to Bailamōs, baby!

And that TV thing goes outta the housa and especially outta the BED-ROOM!!! and straight straight into the big big screens with Music Videos and Music Videos Only at MY Corp K CLUBS!!!! Or we can keep the TV thing to parent-sit our parents when we are not in the mood to entertain them and we are in the mood to entertain our parentage appendages like when? NEVER, let's just hand them the TV thing and split autta here! BUY! and BYE! here's your tv parentito, it will do a good job of raising you from now on, we will be back ??? I don't know, WHEN WE FEEL LIKE IT? I ve got ERRANDS anyhow an NO you can't come with me. I'll get them done much faster and better and with better CONCENTRATION you see! without you, so sit, sit, sit, here in front of this box stare into it, not even your eyes moving and that's such a good parentito! I LOVE YOU SO MUCH Parentito! and buh bye!

The rest of us young HoTTieS who like to Dance and Lauth! At night we are OBLIGATED and PRESCRIBED (as in no more boring gyms) to go have some fun and INTERACT and get exercise. here we go and if YOU dont yet have a KLUB like this to go to! I hope you are jealous, or when you are near by MY San Francisco, you just come by and visit me and get to meet me personally.

And, of course, in my play and in my intermission and at my kluB you all of you any of you are all allowed to leave any time you like, nobody forcing you to go to no theaters especially not intermissions. If you are bored, you are ordered to leave! I hate to be bored and I hate it when people are boring me and if you are bored (you don't have to tell me I'm boring you, just make up a nice story and get me to believe it or something, or just say gotta go! bye! and go, I don't take nothing personally, I have your number and I just call you and yell at you and then we either never talk to each other again, or we are best buddies again... would you mind paying your cell bill on time? Why am I always so lucky to call you on the day you FORGOT to pay your phone bill??)

Ok, curtain is opening...

At LloKomE You are in a club that is world famous (not just U.S.) for its Salsa nights.

At LloKomE You dance to music You though You would never hear again when you left Your Country.

At LloKomE you are in a beautiful place getting away, relaxing, enjoying life, being Yourself.

At LloKomE You are in the company of People like You – Friends who are good, quality, classy, intelligent, fun loving, people from around the World – the Americas, Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia – The Earth [← link to schedule of events and/or a really good world atlas and maps website or Microsoft maps website or Yahoo maps]

At LloKomE You are getting Younger. You are walking around from person to person. That's exercise!

Not to mention dancing, but that takes more energy. Meeting someone older than You – that works especially well.

At LloKomE You are a Smart Person getting away from having to be smart all the time.

YOU, our Customer, make us who we are. You make us YOUR LloKomE Thank You!!!!

You are invited to come and celebrate YOUR LloKomE with us.

If you are not in a mood, come down anyway and mope. See how long you can keep it up before we make You Laugh

*(You might still want to dress half-way decent, in case You bump into the Love of Your life.)

 (Not to put any pressure on you, but it could be bump or crash and/or either one or both)

 (Usually we just have a good time merely hanging out and nothing so close to something this Momentous happens)

We have an ATM here, so You did not have to go to one before You got here.

We have Your friends and interesting people here for You, so You did not have to bring any Yourself.

Quick: program this into Your phone: LloKomE 415-77-11-44-2. Thanks!

You have the directions and schedule (always up to date) with You everywhere You go in case You forget how or when You get here. You have not forgotten your phone.

At LloKomE You are Nice and you did not deprive us of your company.

At Your LloKomE we make it so easy for you to Be Nice.

Thank You for not coming here and telling me that I got you in trouble because you kept reading and you were at a meeting, and Mr. Big Boss was there and You laugh! Out loud! If you are reading here you have all the information you need so that you are at Your LloKomE. Thank you for opening this e-mail and getting the information. Of course, if you are the Big Boss it's ok to read something unrelated to work while you are having your very own Big Meeting and laugh out loud. The only trouble you get into when you are Mr. Big Boss, is they look at you funny thinking what on Earth are you up to now. And you don't have to explain anything to anybody and they would not get it anyhow.

If you can absolutely manage to have read the rest of this without stopping to laugh, then it takes 3 min. for a medium speed reader to read. I don't know, I had to make a guess. The fastest I could manage was 7. And I read fast.

When you, our Customer, leave LloKomE, it does not mean we stop having fun. All the LloKomE friends are usually in too good a mood to go home just yet. We have ourselves a little 'after party'. It's our house and we live here, we are allowed. Following is a bit of LloKomE Humor, since you are still around, and we are having too much fun to go to our rooms. And as much as the LloKomE family is a very hard working family, we are very fun loving too. (Wow, that might explain why we have LloKomE and not a komputer factory or a bank). We have fun doing our work and nobody loves her job more then The LloKomE Queen. The LloKomE Queen will absolutely love you for reading this far. You like to read - you are definitely her kind of a person. And you like to laugh.

LloKomE Queen's 'After The Invitation' Party – You MUST say to people 'You Are Cool!'

People of the world, of all cultures unite....that kind of rubbish....we just want to hang out with cool people.

So many fascinating, interesting, basically all around cool people in the San Francisco Bay Area. On any given night there has to be at least a million of them in the general vicinity close enough to just pop into a vehicle and show up and hangout. They could be from anywhere anyplace on Earth. They could even be from more then one place on Earth. Like Columbia and Lebanon – two places. Like Brasil and Jordan or Russia and Spain or even America and America, as incredible as that would be. What if it occurs to them they are in a mood to hangout with other cool people? Where do they go? They want something nice. I know! They want LloKomE! They just don't know that we are here. They can't remember. They forgot.

OK, we still have a problem here. Some people are cool and they don't know they are cool. If they don't even know they are cool, how can they show up at LloKomE? If they don't show up at LloKomE, how can I the Queen of LloKomE be cool? How can I be cool if I can't hang out with cool people?

You must, you - the special person that hangs around in the afters (get it? – afters = after-parties?), you have to! When you think somebody 's cool, you have to tell them! They have to know! They must come to grips with it! Every cool person you know – it is your responsibility. You say – “You know, I'm pretty cool, and I just had this thought that you are cool. And if a person as cool as me, thinks you are cool, then you must be really cool.” And then you say: “You know, I'm always hanging out at this very nice, very cool LloKomE. Well, you understand, I'm cool, so I have to have a cool place to go to, to hangout with cool people, and that makes me even cooler, cause I hangout with cool people and they think I'm cool, and if I, cool person, think they are cool, then they must be really cool, and they think I'm cool and that makes me really, really, really cool, and I think

You are cool, and do you realize just how enormously cool that makes you? You must come to LloKomE, we are looking for you, you are looking for us. At LloKomE we collect cool people here....”

You don't have to memorize all that. Just say – ‘you're cool, you're LloKomE’.

If you can't remember that, say ‘you're LloKomE’.

Oh, whatever. Just say ‘LloKomE’.

Please try to remember ‘LloKomE’.

If you forget that, you can go through the phone book in your cell-phone starting with ‘A’ down. Hopefully you will recognize ‘LloKomE’ when you see it.

Oh, never mind. The only thing that matters is that you tell people: “You Are Cool”. So they know.

Wait, where did I leave my phone? It's OK. Even cool people lose their phones. Despite the fact that you lost your phone AND you can't remember the name ‘LloKomE’ I still think you are cool. And I'm Katarina The LloKomE Queen. I hang out with really cool people at LloKomE, and they think I'm cool, and that makes me really, really, really cool. And I think you are cool and that makes you so unbelievably cool. Soooo cool that you are... how do I describe it?... I don't know,...just plain: Cool. You are cool. You're LloKomE.

The LloKomE bartenders and the LloKomE coat check girl and the LloKomE security all said: “We are taking a day off, because we are cool people and we HAVE TO hang out at this party.” And I don't know any nightclub staff people that aren't cool, they all said – ‘sorry, we are going to your party, Katarina.’ And I said – “I am The LloKomE Queen. When you talk to me, you address me as ‘LloKomE Queen’”. And then I had to give them enough money to make it cooler for them to work then to be at my party, which I think was more than at least triple their usual salary, from my own money! And they were still complaining, but they said – ‘Ok, LloKomE Queen. But only because you're cool.’ And that is the true story of why we have to charge you for anything at all. I was going to get a tiara with that money. When you are here, if anyone says – ‘oh, that's free’, you say “no, I want to contribute to ‘The LloKomE Queen of the Stars Tiara Self-Adoration Fund’”. You don't have to remember all that, just say: ‘LloKomE’. And if you forget that, it's in your phone. And when you are doing this thing called: ‘contributing to a very good, noble cause’, it is a thing that when you do it, it makes you cool. You are cool. You are at your LloKomE.

At LloKomE you are at an Oasis. Your mind is finally on a vacation. LloKomE is this place where you can say nice things about yourself and nobody laughs at you. Not to your face. Ever. I would never allow that. You all have these moments where you have a stray nice thought about yourself. It is probably true and your showing up at LloKomE proves it.

At LloKomE we have this box, right before the LloKomE entrance. As you walk in, you just drop in: worry, stress, boredom, loneliness, I-shoulds, I-have-tos. If you have any. It's FREE. And if you forget them on your way out, oh well. But I do guarantee you they will still be there when you walk out, so don't worry about them. Nobody wants to steal that kind of stuff. We carefully dispose of the contents once a week at a toxic waste dump, so don't put any money in there. Hand the money directly to any member of the LloKomE family. We do something else with disposable money. If we ever happen to come across anything called disposable we know exactly what to do with it. So just don't worry about anything.

I am The LloKomE Queen and nobody argues with me about that. If I'm not at LloKomE, 1134 Symphony Street in San Francisco, California, USA, Earth, Universe, someone here knows where I am. Check the schedule of events (by phone or internet) as some may be more fun for you than others. Come by any time. We're fun. YOUR LloKomE. You love us and we love you. It's all cool. No excuses. Just do it. You are thanking yourself for it. You are congratulating yourself on being a basically all around cool person. You read this out loud to people and you laugh even more. Even sometimes when I don't know where I am, there is somebody at LloKomE who does. I don't know how they do that.

You don't need to bring other cool people to LloKomE. That's where you find them – at LloKomE. How are you supposed to find cool people if you won't come to LloKomE, where you find them, until you find them??? Explain THAT!

And it's not your job to drag them down here either. It's hard enough work just getting yourself down here, one cool person – you. Two of you? Forget it! Don't even bother. Just tell them where you are going to be, if they ask, if you want to hang out with them. Make sure they remember 'LloKomE', in case they decide to drag themselves down here. If they are cool. If they are not cool, don't tell them anything. You don't want to show up and have to see them here, do you?

Really. We are very professional here and we have anticipated your every need. LloKomE has every 't' crossed and every 'i' dotted. If you got a new phone, double check: LloKomE 415-824-6910. Good, now you know you can get the directions any time anywhere. You can get our schedule anytime anywhere. If you ever call and it's out of date, first person to come down here and tell me gets a dollar. You know where to find me. I'm at my LloKomE. Just don't forget your phone, for heavens sake! When you come here often enough you don't even need the phone because you just remember how to get here. That's how cool you are!

Some people do bring their phones in here, so that other people, who are not at LloKomE at the moment, can call and bug them, and so that they have to say 'Excuse me' when I am in a middle of telling them a joke. But that's ok, that's what they want so we allow that sort of a thing around here. So if you need to make a phone call when you are at LloKomE you can just borrow a phone from somebody. And if you are brand new here, I don't want to see you using the pay phone. Needing to borrow a phone is one great excuse to start talking to somebody. So, to use a phone, you just say 'please' or 'LloKomE' or something like that. Say: 'You are cool.' You don't even have to remember any of this. You are here and I am here to personally help you with difficult stuff like this. You just show up.

Pictures of LloKomE are on the website, and it looks even better in person. There are some very dedicated people here at LloKomE who work very hard. Would I be the Queen of anything less then the best??? I take the best of care of all things and all people at LloKomE, and I don't even work here! That's how much I love LloKomE. I am Katarina The LloKomE Queen of the Stars! Do queens work? Anyone ever seen me doing anything called work around here? Of course not! LloKomE is the cool place you've been looking for, for cool people like you. You just show up at your LloKomE and you are cool. Now you know where you are.

Thanks For Reading

Katarina

This e-mail is especially designed and the words chosen with precision to go into your subconscious mind and make you realize that you are a cool person.

Even the after-party is over now. Katarina is here talking to the last person as they are trying to leave.

I really just want to hang out with cool people, so when you send this e-mail around, please don't change any of it and don't add anything to it. And it works much better if you can print it in color. So if your printer doesn't do color, borrow a color printer or borrow a paper colored copy from someone or just don't print it at all.

Thanks. I want the cool people to know where to find me. So tell people 'you're cool', 'you're LloKomE'.

Just walk around repeating that all day. I REALLY appreciate it. You're cool. You're LloKomE. And I love you just for reading this. So if you delete this, and never give it another thought, you are still cool. You can read. That's cool.

If the mood strikes you to change anything at all for any reason, contact me, right away. Anything confuses you, or bothers you, contact me, right away. It's my work and I will fix it myself. I'll figure out what you are trying to accomplish and change it for you. At NO CHARGE. That's what I am here for. You come to me, I figure out what you want and I give it to you. I do all the work. But I can't give you what you want if you don't come and talk to me.

And just because it's on the internet and it's easy for you to change the words doesn't mean you can mess with my stuff. This is my work. This is going to be a book. It will be printed in color. And it will sometimes be FREE. That is so nice, isn't it?

A nice little book, with color, for people who aren't in a mood to walk around looking for a colored printer, or stealing their coworkers copies because they have color and they don't feel like reading it on a computer screen, cause that gives a headache, and then you can't remember where you put the Aspirin... And it's not nice to make your coworkers have to be looking for the stupid Aspirin when they have a headache... So if they snap at you, don't get all uppity, when you are the one that gave them the headache in the first place...

If you contact me, it gives me ideas. No you don't give me the ideas. You just tell me what you want. You don't tell me, I figure it out. Because sometimes you say you want one thing, and you really want another and you don't really know what you want or if you even want anything at all. You forget. Now, LloKomE. It is so funny, it's absolutely impossible to forget. And even I The LloKomE Queen sometimes forget. And that's ok! You're LloKomE. You just show up. And when you have showed up, you just know it and you think it's very funny.

You can still do this thing called 'contributing'. That's why I had someone go through the trouble of creating 'The LloKomE Queen of the Stars Tiara Self-Adoration Fund'. And I don't even charge you for it! So that you can do the thing called 'contributing'. And when you are doing this thing called 'contributing' it is a thing that when you do it it makes you feel cool. And you like to feel cool. You can contribute, if it is your intent to feel that cool. I can not stop you from doing anything. If you want do it then do it. You always do exactly and only what you want to do anyway. Why would I waste my energy on trying to stop you from doing anything, when it would not even work, when I could be doing something else? I could be dancing or laughing with you here at LloKomE.

Here is a though, if you really want to do this, you just can't help yourself, that's cool, you want to feel cool, you want to be doing this thing called contributing, cause you want to feel just plain good, just go ahead and double it and contribute that! You'll feel twice as good! Oh what the heck. Multiply it by ten. Where is my calculator? Good, now that you have the calculator, cause I don't know where mine is, we can even multiply it by something nice like 22 or 34, or even 9,876,543,210 without anyone seeing us trying to work it out on paper and then somebody might be in a position to notice that we can't remember how to multiply without the calculator, because we have not really had to use the multiplication thing since the day they tried to teach us this at school.

{Let's just assume for a minute that you are not one of those people who actually like to multiply numbers in your head. Some people like to do that even here at LloKomE, to them it's fun, and we like people who like to have fun at LloKomE. Of course you had no problem remembering how to do it at school, you knew how to do it before the teacher finished explaining. If you are one of these people, please, for a minute, substitute something else you never cared to learn in school, something that was no fun to you, something like spelling, or grammar or something like that.}

Why in the world, would we ever bother trying to remember how to multiply without the calculator when you never had to do it ONCE since they made you suffer at school? And you were only a child. You could have spent the time laughing and the brain-cells for remembering something that makes you laugh, like a joke or something.

And all those times you wished you had remembered multiplication, when you looked real hard and still didn't find your calculator. You went, 'oh well'. And did anything bad happen???. And then you are at a store and you see a calculator and you think – 'What did I need that for? I can't remember.' 'Should I buy it?', obviously, you are not going to spend money on anything you don't even know you really need, so you get home, you see the paper where you could not work the problem out earlier, and you feel so embarrassed that you can't remember multiplication from school when you were only a child and the only thing you wanted to do was laugh and they would not let you, and now you are a horrible adult who can't remember the calculator on top of it. And then it took you an hour or so, but you did manage to forget it, and then did anything bad happen???

Oh my God! What if somebody else could actually see you? And now you don't have a calculator, so you can't pretend like you are just using it for no other reason that it's faster than using the pretend calculator in your head. That would be very embarrassing for a long time, that would be terrible. You'd be doing acute embarrassment for a whole day maybe more, and everytime you saw Mr. Somebody again! Mr. Somebody can't multiply in his head either, but you don't know that because he always has a calculator handy or he doesn't really need the answer all that badly after all and he just looks like Mr. Somebody. If you ask him 'Can you multiply in your head?', he might ask you back or he might even try to get you to show him. So don't you ever ask! Better yet, don't even talk to people who are doing something with numbers. You never know they might ask you to help out, their pretend calculators are tired or something. And then you'd have witnesses to the fact that you can't multiply AND you have been pretending this whole time. So here you are a horrible fake person.

But even then a month later when you finally managed to forget that you are a horrible fake person, did anything bad happen? Absolutely nothing. Absolutely nothing except that you wasted all that time doing 'acute embarrassment I am a horrible fake person, somebody might discover.' And all of that just because they had nothing better to do, and wouldn't let you be and let you laugh when you were a little cutie pie at school.

And so here we all are pretending we have a calculator in our heads, and nobody has it. Except for the people who have them in order to amuse themselves. We could clear this up if we would just talk to each other. None of us can ever remember anything and it's a good thing! If we did not have bad memory, how could we forget to stop doing the 'I'm a horrible person' and start doing 'I'm feeling just wonderful all over and smiling'? How could we remember to start doing 'hanging out with The LloKomE Queen at LloKomE'? The LloKomE Queen does not have a calculator in her head and she actually admits it out loud and with her I don't have to pretend that I do and I feel free. So free, I just laugh all the time. And when nobody is around, I don't laugh so much, but just smile to myself, I can't remember why, but I just feel good and can't remember anything to feel bad about. Your memory is precious. Be frugal and waste it only on things you want to remember, only on things that feel good. That's LloKomE.

OK, this is Möbius strip. Somebody get me scissors.

Möbius strip is this thing where you go round and round and you are on one side and then you are on the other and you see that you are on the other side but you don't quite get how you got to the other side when you never crossed to the other side because you are just going round and round and on the same ONE side! And then you get mad, you get scissors, you cut the strip and you see it's just a strip. It has two sides, they don't morph into each other, they just sit there each side on it's own side so what the heck is going on here...? And you go "I don't get it?!!!" And you don't get it. You know where to find me. If you can explain it to me, in a way that makes me say - 'I get it!', I'll give you my tiara. Are you handsome too? You are cool! Just remember that. And tell everybody.

Your LloKomE!

Never mind! If you are not super good dancer then its not a give, just a loan, for a day or something...

OK, I'm here, in this humongous, gorgeous place called LloKomE and I'm doing this thing called all alone and too wound up to sleep. Who do I know that I can call, that is not asleep at this time of the day? Somebody cool. When you laugh, you are exercising too. How much fun is too much fun? That's the crucial question here. When you laugh all day straight through, you can not eat anything cause you can't swallow when you are laughing and it makes it difficult to fall asleep too. So you don't eat anything and that could be a problem, cause you could get too skinny. And you just don't feel like sleeping, you don't even feel tired, and that could be a problem cause you have to sleep. The point of life is to have fun. And I'm here on this Earth to make people laugh.

That's the job description God himself gave me. All There Is said - 'You'll know you are finished when you have EVERY single person on this planet laughing continuously just doing nothing but laughing at all times. Then you can find something else to do. If you want. You can just party and not worry about anything, ever.' I said 'Well, can we at least let them stop laughing long enough to eat and sleep?' She said - 'Ok, whatever you want.'

What? Yes, I hangout with God. She's cool! She shows up at LloKomE all the time. That's who I'll call! She never sleeps anyway. She doesn't need it. As I had the honor of learning for myself, thanks to having LloKomE. So tell people - 'You Are Cool. You're LloKomE.' At the very least it will make them laugh on the inside thinking you are complete loony. Sooner or later they will realize they are cool and they will be at Your LloKomE. And that's it. Just like that.

Oh, and one last thing. When you are on the actual LloKomE property, less then 1/2 mile of physical distance from me, don't say 'cool'. I'm so sick and tired of hearing myself say 'cool' that it doesn't even make me laugh anymore. Say LloKomE instead. I will never get tired of hearing the word LloKomE, and I respond very well to anything that sounds at least close to it.

I could call Shakira. What time zone is she in right now? She was just hanging out at LloKomE and before she even knew how it happened, she was talking up a storm and writing all those songs in English! Can you believe that? She is even translating this for me into Spanish AND Arabic AND maybe something else too. Something from Europe, or Asia, or Africa or Earth. She is very intelligent. I could translate it myself, into Russian or Check. But I'm not in a mood for that right now, so that would be work and I don't do that. Shakira is so LloKomE, with her you know she's even getting the colors right, where they are supposed to go, because I don't want to have to verify that. The colors are important, and I don't speak those other languages. Yet. So I will put that on the LloKomE website for all the LloKomE people who don't speak English. Just because they don't speak English, doesn't make them not LloKomE. Shakira likes to hang out with them, and it makes it easier that she speaks their language too. And then they all like it here because we play music in all their languages. But really, who cares about the languages, it's the music. All LloKomE people love music. And when you are dancing, nobody ever listens to the words anyway. Not in a way that makes them care what they mean. And Shakira is so LloKomE, she likes to write too. Like me. I hope I spelled her name right. It's so hard to remember names, you don't expect me to learn the spelling too, do you?

Wait a minute, whose phone is this? Whoops! This is Madonna's phone. I went and got the same exact phone as hers except hers says 'Madonna' and mine says 'LloKomE KueenE'. She's LloKomE with that, she just doesn't really appreciate it when she ends up with my phone every time she finds a spare moment away from her kids just to come by to see me here.

Let's see, she has Shakira's number in here. Actually, this is where they met, right here at LloKomE. You did not expect me to have her number memorized did you? Why would I bother, when it's in my phone? I only remember LloKomE phone number, that's all I need because they all come here anyway. I don't even remember Amr Diab's number and he's absolutely beautiful. Wait a minute. I'm so LloKomE, I'm just always here, I don't even remember LloKomE number. I'm too LloKomE to have to remember it. I forgot.

- Hi! Shakira!
- No, this is Katya, I'm just using Madonna's phone again.
- Why did you answer so fast? You like her better than me or something?
- Hey! What's your name look like when you write it in Arabic? Hey! I can put that on LloKomE website! You don't even have to give LloKomE any money for putting Shakira on our website in Arabic. You are way too LloKomE for us to accept any money from you.
- No, no, no. It's not us promoting Shakira at no charge to her. It's just for people out there who might be interested in seeing what it looks like.
- What do you mean you don't even have it on your website? That's just rude! What about all the people who might want to see it?
- Well at least there is LloKomE. LloKomE takes care of all the people AND makes sure nobody notices Shakira did a thing that might appear rude to some people at NO CHARGE to Shakira or the people.
- Don't worry. They will know where to find it. Everybody comes to LloKomE sooner or later. And they will come here before they go anywhere else so you don't even need it on your website anyway, so it's all LloKomE.
- Yeah, e-mail will work. But don't you worry about it. I'll try to remember for you when you're here at LloKomE. So. What's up? How come we haven't seen you all week?
- Last night? You mean you were here at LloKomE last night? My LloKomE?
- Oh, my God! It had to be when I was talking to that Iglesias guy. He was trying to explain the Möbius strip thing to me, so I had to concentrate and not laugh so much!
- Oh, ok. Wait... why can't I ever remember peoples names, what's his name?, your husband? Please, tell him right now I said 'Hi!' so you don't have to remember later. Tell him he's LloKomE. I swear I would recognize his name if I went through all the phone numbers in my phone. I hope it's not at the end. I might forget who I was looking for, and before I get to the end, and go do something else. But really LISTEN! Can't I just walk anywhere in Argentina or Brazil out on the street and say What's his name? and wount they just tell me? Yeah! See! So why would I remember? As long as I remember he's your Husband? and has something to do with something in Argentina, or is it Brazil? ... My phone?
- Of course. You know exactly what's gonna happen. The moment she notices, she's gonna be calling here to kindly remind me to get a new phone that looks as far from hers as possible.
- You have to come when she's here! Before the kids she was always here, but now she only shows up about once a week. She didn't even stick around for the after party.
- Ok, bye. Hey! You're LloKomE.
- Ok, bye.
- Ok, I'll tell Enrique you said 'Hi!'
- Don't be silly, you're Shakira. However the heck you spell it. How could he possibly not remember you?

- Yeah, he's LloKomE. I'll tell him you said that too. If I can remember at all. When a girl has a man in front of her, as good with words as this one, it does not help the memory and concentration thing much. Ok, bye.

Unless she's, like, memorising and concentrating on Him solely! yeah! in which case no rittalin needed! AT ALL.

Shakira is so LloKomE, she even knew what a Möbius strip is.

I'm Katya the LloKomE Queen of the Stars and I did not make ANY of this up.

- Thank You!!! Very much! Every single one of you! Thanks for being with me. You are all so LloKomE! AND I made it ALL up. All by myself too. Nobody helped me.

You're LloKomE.

Did Shakira have to copyright Shakira? If you bump into her, tell her to call me. I should ask her this. Or Madonna, either one. Madonna might be even better, she tries to hide it, but she's quite a businesswoman. Oh yeah! I was gonna call God! It completely slipped my mind. Now, I know Madonna has God's number in here...

[a link to remove themselves from the list]

[not a single phone number in this whole theatre is real, I made them all up, please dont call in case some poor person really does own one of these numbers and then they would live in the bay area and than they would know exaxtly where to find me to come and smack me for this happening to them]
